

NEWS AND VIEWS . . .

And What Have You

By BOB CRAIG

I would like to join all of the rest of the people of Hamlin in welcoming all of the out-of-town exes home this weekend. I hope that your visit will be a pleasant one and you have an opportunity to renew old acquaintances.

Saturday is a big day for the voters of Hamlin as this is the day of the Sewer Bond Election. It is important that all of the qualified voters turn out and vote.

Admittedly, the choice in this election is not too great because the city must build a new sewer system or face a great many unpleasant actions by the state. The question Saturday is not whether we are going to build a new sewer plant but how we are going to pay for it.

It looks to us like the council has made the only wise choice in calling the bond election. This is the cheapest way as far as interest costs are concerned and the fact that the sewer fees will pay off the bonds makes this the most painless way.

I hope that you will take time out Saturday from all of the homecoming activities and vote. Don't just stay home thinking that its not very important, because the decision must be made and it should be made by all of the qualified voters and not just a few.

Our friend James Roberts in his "Drifting Sands" column in the Andrews County News has come up with another jewel that I think will be interesting to most of you readers. His column follows:

High school football in West Texas is an accepted way of life... and ranks up their along with motherhood, apple pie, blackeyed peas, and cornbread as far as the rank and file is concerned.

That football is regarded in any other manner, anywhere, may come as a distinct shock to most of us.

But the little town of Yellow Springs, Ohio, is about as divided and torn up over football as this community used to be over the wet and dry issue.

And it provides a study in contrast. Here in Andrews we built the new high school. In Yellow Springs over half the citizens in town are fightin' tooth and toenail to keep the school from fieldin' it's first high school football team.

The Wall Street Journal, in a recent issue, detailed the wrangle between local citizens over football in a front page story by Jeffrey Tannenbaum.

Yellow Springs is the home of Antioch College and sports a huge intellectual community... an intellectual group that doesn't want football in its high school.

Glen Owen, high school art teacher, is an example of one side of the football issue: "Why bring in a Frankenstein?" he asks. "You inject middle class values into a school system and eventually something else has to go."

On the other side of the football fence is a group of men who want their boys to play football and have organized a private corporation to package a football team and deliver it ready-made — and winning — to the high school.

Spokesman for the latter group is a truck driver named, of all things, Reginald O'Neal Benning who says, "I ain't hung up on Hamlet, baby, and I still think we're going to make it."

Get the picture? Teacher Owen is quoted as denouncing football as "crass" and "common" and fears the next step would be "rah-rah assemblies and the whole thing about school spirit." Football, he adds, is "a threat to the arts."

Owens gets support from Clair Miller, director of the school's or—

7:30 Kickoff Saturday To Open Piper-Tiger Tilt

The Pied Pipers will host one of the top teams in the state here Saturday when they play the Jacksboro Tigers in their annual Homecoming game. Kickoff time for this contest will be 7:30.

The Tigers will be carrying a 3-1 record into the contest while the Pipers will still be looking for their first win of the season. Last Saturday the Tigers defeated the Stamford Bulldogs 41-12 in their Homecoming game. The Pipers lost to Coahoma 45-14.

This is the last week of non-conference action for 7-AA teams as district action will start next week. In other non-conference action this week Haskell will host Olney, Merkel will play at Roscoe, Anson will play at Albany and Rotan will host Wylie, all Friday night games. On Saturday Stamford will travel to Childress to play Dalhart.

Lee Cook, 175-pound senior, will be quarterback for the Tigers. This is his third year to start at this position. He throws well and is a good runner. In the backfield with him will be Monte Garner, a 143-pound senior, at fullback, Roy Leach, a 150-pound junior, at tailback, and Jerry Mower, a 147-pound senior, at wingback.

In the line the Tigers are expected to start Ronnie Colbert, a 190-pound senior, at tight end; Clippy Williams, a 152-pound senior, at split end;

Randy Jackson, a 216-pound senior, at one tackle and Jeverne Lewis, a 200-pound junior, at the other tackle; John Dykes, a 188-pound junior, will be at one guard and Reggie Foster, a 183-pound senior, at the other guard; Rollo Boster, a 155-pound junior, will be at center.

The Hamlin Junior Varsity defeated the Stamford Junior Varsity here last Thursday evening 26-0, to remain undefeated. The game scheduled this week between the Hamlin JV's and the Merkel JV's has been cancelled by Merkel, according to Bobby King, JV coach.

Bill Cork opened the scoring against Stamford with a 25-yard touchdown run. The try for two points failed. L. J. Lee scored the second Hamlin touchdown with Cork adding the two points. Lee scored again in the second period when he intercepted a Stamford pass and returned it 30 yards for the score. The pass try for two points failed.

The Hamlin defense set Stamford back in their own end zone for a two point safety and then Lee scored the final six points of the evening on a six-yard carry over left guard.

On Cable Here

Hamlin football fans will be able to see the University of Texas and Oklahoma University grid classic on cable TV Saturday at 1:30 according to Robert Hinshaw, general manager of Cable Electronics.

The Texas-OU game will be carried on Channel 13 in Hamlin.

Bond Election Set Here Saturday

Hamlin voters will go to the polls here Saturday to decide the fate of a $150,000 Sewer Bond Election. Voting will be held in the City Hall with all qualified resident voters eligible to vote. The polls will open at 8 a.m. and close at 7 p.m.

In a statement issued last week, Mayor Hollis Madden

said that approval of the bond issue would not require any increase in city taxes. He said that the increased sewer fees that went into effect this summer would retire the bonds.

Mayor Madden also pointed out that the council did not have much choice in the matter of calling the bond election since the state is requiring that the new plant be built. If the voters turn down the bond issue the city will have to seek some other method of financing the project which would be more expensive than bonds.

The bond election has been called to finance a sewage treatment plant to meet the requirements of the Texas Water Quality Control Board, the Texas Department of Health and the Federal Water Pollution Control Administration.

About $100,000 of the $150,000 issue will be used for the city's share of the cost of the new plant and for land purchases for the site. The balance of the issue will be used only if necessary to extend the present sewer system. It is the thought of the engineers for the city that the federal government is likely to require the city to extend its sewer service before approving the project.

If the additional monies are not needed the bonds will not be sold.

Madden said that there would be no need for a tax increase unless the government comes up with more projects that the city must undertake. He pointed out that in the past two years the city has been required to undertake two projects that have cost in the neighborhood of $200,000 because of state and federal requirements. He said the council has no way of predicting what lies ahead in the way of state and federal requirements but at the present time the city can manage without a tax increase.

The treatment plant is expected to cost $145,000 with the federal government furnishing approximately $80,000 of this in the form of a grant.

All registered qualified voters living within the City limits of Hamlin on the day of the election will be eligible to vote in the election. To meet the requirements of a ruling by the Texas Attorney General there will be two boxes, one for property owners and one for non-property owners.

McCaulley High School Makes Homecoming Plans

The McCaulley High School Homecoming will be held Saturday, Oct. 23, beginning with registration at 4:30 p.m.

A barbecue supper will be served by the juniors and seniors beginning at 5:30 p.m. Tickets are $1 for children and $1.50 for adults.

The McCaulley Eagles will play the Fluvanna Buffaloes at 7:30 p.m. in a six man football game. The Pep Squad will crown the 1971 Sweetheart and Hero at halftime.

Members of the Future Homemakers of America Chapter are selling mums for the Homecoming event. Anyone who wishes to purchase a mum should contact an FHA girl by Oct. 20.

A gift will be presented to the ex who travels the farthest distance.

All exes, friends and relatives are welcome.

Church of Christ To Open Gospel Meeting Oct. 17

Dates for a Gospel Meeting to be conducted by Preston Cotham of Sweetwater at the Hamlin Church of Christ have been announced by the minister, W. H. (Gene) Johnston.

Services will be held at 7:30 p.m. each day Oct 17-23, except Sunday. Mr. Johnston invites everyone to attend the Olde Tyme Gospel Meeting.

Exes to Bring Pies Friday

All local ex-students are being asked to bring a pie for the Chili Supper Friday evening during the Homecoming event. The pies need to be at the high school cafeteria by 5:30 p.m. Friday.

Those planning to take a pie should call Valeta Hartle at 576-3410 by Thursday.

A large number of pies will be needed and officers of the association are asking the cooperation of all exes in the project. All pies not served will be sold.

The after game coffee will be held Saturday in the high school cafeteria.

First Permanent Voter Registration Now Open

First so-called permanent voter registration period opened throughout Texas with the beginning of October. This will also be the first regular registration period open to pre-21 voters, with the 18, 19 and 20-year old voters to be registered without any voting restrictions for the first time.

Previously, prior to passage of a United States constitutional amendment, Texas pre-21's had been registered for voting in federal elections only.

There will be no termination point to voter registration this year, with potential voters to be registered on any business day throughout the year at the county tax office.

However, there is a time limit as far as voting is concerned, with the voting registration certificate valid for voting after the expiration of 30 days following sign-up.

Thus, a person who wanted to vote in an election would need to register at least 31 days prior to the election.

With the registration, the voter is now legally entitled to vote in any election for the following three-year period, unless the registration is invalidated for one of the reasons stated under the law.

The county tax assessor is directed to remove from the rolls any person who moves out of the county, is convicted of a felony, is declared legally insane or, of course, dies.

Automatic renewal for a three-year period is made by voting in any primary or general election. Renewal is not made through voting in school, city, bond or similar elections.

First list of registered voters will be prepared after Jan. 31, 1972, with supplemental lists then issued prior to each election.

FROM THE FILES . . .

FORTY-FIVE YEARS AGO
(October 5, 1928)

It is a pretty good sign when home people will put their money into home property. That is what Hamlin people think of Hamlin. In fact this week has seen some big deals pulled off in Hamlin.

The Herald is reliably informed that the brick business house occupied by the Lacy Cash Hardware was sold by John C. Turner to J. A. Young for a nice price.

Also the big two-story brick of the Barrow Furniture Co. was turned to John T. Day this week for a handsome price. This will make Day & Son splendid corner with two large houses connected. No, there is no thought of Barrow giving up the building and placing his furniture in some other store.

Rumors are in the air that several big companies are looking toward Hamlin for investment. Why not? Hamlin has a bright future, if nothing happens, and there is no room for "something" to happen. Hamlin is coming into its own very fast, especially since it is "sitting" beside a high grade oil pool.

This week the Herald Reporter locates six nice brick vaneer residences under course of construction in Hamlin.

We have not yet reported the M. Y. Wilson home that is fast going to completion in the corner of Sixty St. and Alamo Avenue. This is to be one of the largest brick vaneers yet constructed. It stands on the grounds formerly occupied by the Wilson Frame residence which has been moved to a position on Hope Avenue. Mr. Wilson will have the same color and class of brick that are being used in the construction of the Baptist Church.

When everything is considered, the brick house is not so much more costly than all the frame structure, however a well built and maintained frame building will last the lifetime of most builders.

TWENTY YEARS AGO
(October 5, 1951)

There is the story of course, of the colored deacon who, expounding upon his faith in the protection of the Lord, held out his hand in front of a coiled rattlesnake and got bitten.

But there was a new wrinkle this week to the theory that there is considerable difference between faith and good judgement.

Rather skeptical of stories he had heard that one or more mountain lions were roaming the Lake Phantom area in Southeast of Jones County, L. C. Smith of Route 2, Hamlin, loaded up his pack of hunting dogs and went to see for himself.

His curiosity cost him two dogs and gave him some moments which, if filmed, would have been somewhat akin to a Frank Buck African thriller.

The dogs treed the lions, Smith cracked loose with a 22 caliber rifle, wounded one of them and enraged and bleeding, the animal leaped upon one of the dogs, killed it instantly, and left a second mortally torn and bleeding.

At that point Smith found himself deserted. The five remaining dogs held a quick and non-controversial huddle and decided it was time to take off.

Not one of them even waited to hear the motion seconded or voted upon.

Hunter Smith didn't exactly take off himself, but he didn't spend too much time contemplating which was the best thing to do. But of one thing he is sure - there are at least two of those mountain lions loose, and both of them, he asserted, are dangerous killers. One he described as a large and heavy animal and the other as somewhat smaller.

TEN YEARS AGO
(October 5, 1961)

Coach D. C. Andrews reports that his charges are working hard this week following their set back last week to Winters in preparation for their homecoming game with highly rated Childress Friday night.

Andrews said this week that although the Pipers were defeated, 8-0, last week he was proud that they did not give up during the game after having so many breaks go against them. He expects all of the boys to be ready for action Friday night.

The Childress Bobcats will be putting an unblemished record on the line as they hold victories over Paducah, Vernon, Seymour and Electra. Scouting reports here indicate that the Bobcats have big, fast and experienced team.

A sellout crowd is expected for the game. Childress is expected to bring as many as 1,200 fans down with them. Local school officials expect to have standing room only left by game time with all of the reserve seat tickets that are available now on sale at the three drug stores.

A pep rally at 3:15 Friday afternoon on the street between Howard City Drug and the F&M National Bank will be the first of the Hamlin Homecoming activities which are scheduled to continue through Saturday evening. The Pied Piper Band will be on hand to furnish music for the occasion.

Coffee and cookies will be served Friday and Saturday by the B&PW Club at the registration headquarters, in the office of James Rodgers on South Central.

And What Have You

By BOB CRAIG

chestra and concert band. He contends that where football teams spring up, raucous marching bands usually aren't far behind. So he's talking about founding something called the National Society for the Prevention of Marching Bands.

The school board last May rejected the corporation's offer and refused to consider adding football to the high school program. But 600 signatures on a petition brought about a reversal in June. One of the board members, a Mrs. Esther Battle, declared that "football is anti-intellectual, a subjugation of individual decision making."

How about that? The whole controversy swirls in such language. Barbara Hardman, anti-football, frets that most football coaches "are very sexually frustrated males, quite frankly, and most men who play football have a hangup about manhood." But a parttime Bulldog coach and urban consultant, counters with: "I think the man ought to wear the pants of the family. This is a cerebral community. I think it has a high percentage of emasculated males. It's an easy town to raise a sissy in."

Linda Greene, who operates an astrology business, doesn't want anything to do with football. "Football would ruin the school and the town as well. The same mentality that approves of football could lead to other things, like having a shopping center," she says.

Clark Turner, father of the Bulldog quarterback, agrees the anti-football people have something to worry about. "We're going to build a big stadium with artificial turf and kick all the academic kids out of town," he confides. "We're a Communist plot."

What do the kids in town think about it. Marcus Johnson, 15 year old fullback, says: "Football is more important to me than girls. I had a girl friend who said, 'Either football goes or I go.' His girl friend went."

Anyway, Yellow Springs is fielding a football team this year. Now do you wonder why we have a communication gap between the intellectuals of the nation and all of us cornbread 'n taters middle class people.

Come to think of it, maybe what Mrs. Battle said is what happened to us in the Sweetwater game - we forgot to 'subjugate our individual decision making.'

NET

One of the definitions for a net is a trap or a snare.

A net is used to catch a fish. There are times in every man's life when, like Job, he feels that God has trapped him in a net. Job 19:6 reads, "Know now that God hath overthrown me, and hath compassed me with his net."

But our troubles and afflictions are never caused by our God. Moreover, His Word says He is ever faithful to deliver His people. The Psalmist asserts: "Mine eyes are ever toward the Lord; for he shall pluck my feet out of the net."

How wonderful are His promises. These promises are proclaimed from the pulpit by your pastor each week for the blessing and edifying of God's people. Won't you attend church this week and partake of this blessing?

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

Luncheon Opens New Year For Literary Club Friday

"Our Changing Lives Through Health" was the theme for the opening luncheon of the Woman's Literary Club Friday at 1 p.m. in Hamlin Restaurant.

Mrs. Johnny Waldrop, second vice president and yearbook chairman, was director. Mrs. Archie Carson gave the invocation. Mrs. Donald Young, president, made announcements.

Mrs. O. H. Weaver Jr. gave the program on the misuse of modern drugs. She pointed out that "drug abuse can be broadly described as an effort by individuals to feel different."

Temporarily drugs allow their users to evade frustrations, to lessen depression and feelings of alienation and to escape from themselves."

She noted the widespread belief that "medicines" magically solve problems and with the ease with which they are obtained more people are turning to drugs rather than coping with their individual problems.

She listed these points for parents:

- (1) Set a good example by not abusing drugs themselves. Since children model their drug taking behavior after parental norms, parents should either refrain from drinking alcohol or drink in moderation.
- (2) Parents should learn facts concerning drugs.
- (3) Do whatever possible to assist anyone wanting help until professional help is secured. Do not condemn those who need help.
- (4) Strive to meet the ideals of parenthood in rearing their children.

Pond Management Tips For Good Fishing Given

Are you taking full advantage of your farm pond? The primary function of a farm pond is livestock water, but all too often the secondary use, fishing, is neglected according to Gary Scheer, Soil Conservationist, at Anson.

All ponds have a great potential for sport and food if just a few management steps are followed. Ponds, like pastures, can be overstocked, and need to be fertilized for maximum production. When fishing is poor in a pond, generally the fish are out of food.

The primary steps to managing your farm pond for good fishing are to clear the pond of all rough fish and waterweeds and muddy appearance. Then order desirable fish from the Bureau of Sport Fisheries and Wildlife or elsewhere and begin a fertilization program in the spring around the last of March. And finally it is important to fish the pond in order to prevent overstocking and stunting of the fish. You should start fishing a pond heavily about one year after stocking.

It's Only Human to Care...

...about the well-being and future of family and friends, community and country.

Cooperatives are human — made up of people who, together, can do what one person cannot do alone.

There are big co-ops and little ones; marketing, purchasing and service co-ops. Co-ops that ship high-quality foodstuffs all over the world, co-ops that provide rural areas with electric power and telephone service, co-ops that furnish health care, credit, insurance, consumer goods and housing. All it takes to get a co-op going is a common need and a strong united determination to meet it.

Cooperatives look outward, too; they're involved in community development, improving the environment, broadening the base of opportunity for young and old...

...because cooperatives are human; they're people—who care.

Coahoma Too Much for Pipers In Second Half, Win 45-14

A fired-up band of Pipers played area ranked Coahoma on even terms all through the first half Friday evening on the Bulldogs' home field, but two quick second half touchdowns by the Bulldogs put the Pipers out of the contest. The Bulldogs went on to win 45-14.

Coahoma opened up the scoring early as they intercepted a Piper pass on the Hamlin 18 and went into score on the next play. Two series later the Pipers tied up the game with a 50-yard drive with Johnny Jones scoring on a screen pass from seven yards out.

Early in the second quarter Johnny put the Pipers out in front with a 77-yard touchdown run. The point after try failed and the Pipers led 14-8. Near the end of the second period the Bulldogs pulled back out in front as they moved 78 yards in two plays to score. The two point play was good and the Bulldogs were out in front, 16-14. A 35-yard field goal attempt by the Pipers was short and the teams went in at half-time with Coahoma ahead 16-14.

Two quick third quarter touchdowns by Coahoma put the game out of reach for the Pipers and the Bulldogs went on to score two more touchdowns before the game was over.

Johnny was the night's leading ball carrier, edging out Coahoma's Donnie Buchanan with 145 yards in 16 carries. Buchanan had 143 yards in 18 carries.

Joe Mayes returned the opening kickoff back to the Hamlin 19 to get the game underway. After two tries into the line for no gain, Quarterback Steve Mackey took to the air only to have Coahoma's Wendell Walker intercept at the Hamlin 18. Walker went over right tackle on the next play for the touchdown. Quarterback Roland Beal went around right end for the two points.

Following the kickoff, the Pipers failed to make a first down and punted to Coahoma with the Bulldogs taking over on their 44. Coahoma tried to punt on fourth down but had trouble handling the ball and Buchanan tried to run for the first down. He was stopped on the 50.

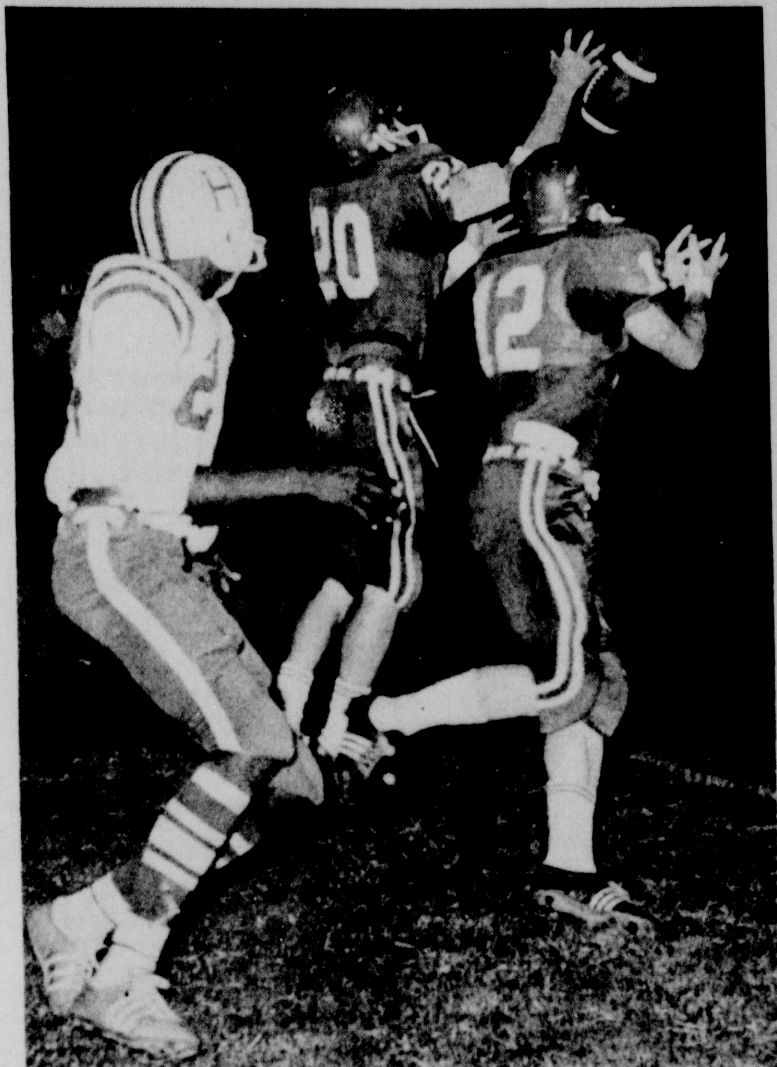

Two tries into the line by Fullback Barry McDonald gained three and a pass interference penalty gave the Pipers a first down on the 42. McDonald carried twice for four yards and Johnny picked up the first down on an eight yard carry to the 30. Johnny broke around left end for 25 yards and a first down at the five. Johnny was dropped for an eight yard loss as he tried around end again, picked up six of these on the next play. Milton Jones had a pass go incomplete and then connected with Johnny on a screen pass with Johnny going in to score. David Willis picked up the two pointer after Coahoma was offside on the first try.

Following the kickoff the two teams punted back and forth with Hamlin taking over on its own 16. Johnny carried for seven yards and then raced around his left end for a 77-yard touchdown run. Mackey's pass for the two points failed and the Pipers led 14-8.

Coahoma moved out to about midfield before punting with Hamlin taking over at the 11. The Pipers moved out to the 39 before having to punt with Rick Rodgers getting off a 49-yarder to the Coahoma 12. But it took Coahoma only two plays to score with Beal keeping for a 59-yard scoring run. Keith Pherigo put Coahoma out in front with a two-point carry.

The Pipers moved down to the Coahoma 29 before losing the ball on an interception with the Bulldogs taking over at their 15. Two plays later Coahoma fumbled with the Pipers' Ray Scifres covering on the 34. With time running out the Pipers moved down to the 15 on a six-yard run by Johnny and a 13-yard screen pass from Milton to Johnny. With only seconds on the clock and no time outs, the Pipers tried a 35 yard field goal with Scifres kicking. The kick was short and Coahoma tried to run it back but was tackled on the five as the half ended.

Coahoma returned the second half kickoff back to their 42 and eight plays later scored with

Buchanan going over right tackle for the final five yards. He went over right guard for the two points.

The Pipers failed to gain a first down following the kickoff and punted out to the Coahoma 44. On the first play Walker went around his right end for 66 yards and the score. The point after was good.

Hamlin punted after failing to make a first down and Coahoma moved from their 23 to the Hamlin 22 before fumbling. The Pipers were forced to punt again and this time a short punt and a face guarding penalty gave the Bulldogs the ball on the Hamlin 31. Three plays later Buchanan scored from 15 yards out. His kick for the point after failed.

The two teams exchanged punts during the first half of the

Two Charged In Shooting Light

Two men were arrested last week in connection with the shooting of a light at the top of the Southwestern Bell Telephone tower here Aug. 29. The arrest came after several weeks of investigation by the Hamlin Police Department.

Arrested Sept. 27 was Clyde Dale Boiles, 24, of Sweetwater. He is out under $1,000 bond. William Andrew Carpenter Jr., 23, of Abilene, was arrested in Abilene Sept. 29. He is free on $1,500 bond.

Both will appear before the next session of the grand jury. The incident occurred when the man stopped in the alley behind the First Baptist Church from where the air craft warning light on top of the tower was destroyed by the discharge of a 308 high powered rifle.

Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Randall Rodgers are parents of a boy, Michael Shayne, 8 lbs. 7 oz., born Oct. 5 at 11:30 a.m.

Piper Patter

BY Terri Casey
Shelley Holtz
Jimmie Bishop

As Homecoming approaches, the students of HHS are preparing for the exciting and fun-filled weekend. The building of the bonfire was begun Monday, and it continues to take form for the big pep rally Friday evening behind the Piper Stadium. The bonfire is expected to be gigantic this year, and all faithful Piper fans are urged to attend and take part in promoting spirit for the big game Saturday night.

The classes and organizations are busying themselves with the building of the floats for the Homecoming Parade. The competition this year is going to be rough, and all of the work and ideas will be shown Saturday afternoon at the parade.

There will be four especially excited girls this weekend, as they are the Homecoming Queen Nominees. Pam Peace, Becky Wright, Debi Meyner, and Shelley Holtz are the senior girls who will represent the class of 1971-72. The crowning of the queen will take place during half time activities at the game Saturday night.

The Student Council met Monday night, and plans were made to decorate the downtown area for the Homecoming festivities. The council also talked about having regular assemblies at HHS; these assemblies will promote good citizenship and provide entertainment also.

The National Honor Society will host a coffee Saturday morning for all exes who were members of the NHS. This is going to be a great time for the renewal of old friendships and the meeting of new friends.

The students of HHS were really excited about coming to school today (Thursday) as it was Report Card Day. It might be a good thing for some that this weekend has pep rallies, parades, and ballgames in which to attend, or they just might be staying at home.

The 1972 Piper is now on sale. The annual staff members are busy at work on making this the best Piper ever. Anyone interested in purchasing one may contact any annual staff member or come up to the school.

Neinda Philosopher Can't Understand Why Europeans Are Upset Over Dollar

Editor's note: The Neinda Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Route One discusses the monetary system this week, mainly from the theoretical side, of course.

Dear editor:

There's no way around it, the people in Europe are a bunch of sissies.

According to an article I read last night in a newspaper that turned up in my mail box by mistake — the new postal service hasn't, as some feared, abandoned all the fine traditions of the old one — all the countries in Europe are biting their finger nails and losing sleep over the value of the American dollar. It's going down.

As a result, everybody is selling dollars, refusing to take dollars from tourists, and generally demanding that something be done before all Europe panics.

Clearly, they are a bunch of sissies. Why, the value of the dollar has been going down for years in the United States and I haven't found anybody yet who has refused to take one. Everybody I know would like to have a lot more of them.

In fact, it takes a lot more of them to pay two dollars for a dollars worth of groceries.

Of course, the monetary system is one of the things I and possibly some others, say three-fourths of Congress and all economists, have never been able to understand, and it may be that the value of the dollar hasn't gone down, just the price of things has gone up.

bending over to pick up a quarter.

Europeans ought to calm down and latch on to all the dollars they can.

As the saying goes, a bird in the hand is worth two in the bush, but you'd better not let the Environmentalists hear you say this.

Personally, I've got confidence in the dollar. It's still worth 100 cents. Unfortunately though a cent is just worth half a penny. That's where the trouble is.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

NEWS AND VIEWS . . .

And What Have You

By BOB CRAIG

I would like to join all of the rest of the people of Hamlin in welcoming all of the out-of-town exes home this weekend. I hope that your visit will be a pleasant one and you have an opportunity to renew old acquaintances.

Saturday is a big day for the voters of Hamlin as this is the day of the Sewer Bond Election. It is important that all of the qualified voters turn out and vote.

Admittedly, the choice in this election is not too great because the city must build a new sewer system or face a great many unpleasant actions by the state. The question Saturday is not whether we are going to build a new sewer plant but how we are going to pay for it.

It looks to us like the council has made the only wise choice in calling the bond election. This is the cheapest way as far as interest costs are concerned and the fact that the sewer fees will pay off the bonds makes this the most painless way.

I hope that you will take time out Saturday from all of the homecoming activities and vote. Don't just stay home thinking that its not very important, because the decision must be made and it should be made by all of the qualified voters and not just a few.

Our friend James Roberts in his "Drifting Sands" column in the Andrews County News has come up with another jewel that I think will be interesting to most of you readers. His column follows:

High school football in West Texas is an accepted way of life... and ranks up their along with motherhood, apple pie, blackeyed peas, and cornbread as far as the rank and file is concerned.

That football is regarded in any other manner, anywhere, may come as a distinct shock to most of us.

But the little town of Yellow Springs, Ohio, is about as divided and torn up over football as this community used to be over the wet and dry issue.

And it provides a study in contrast. Here in Andrews we built the new stadium before we built the new high school. In Yellow Springs over half the citizens in town are fightin' tooth and toenail to keep the school from fieldin' it's first high school football team.

The Wall Street Journal, in a recent issue, detailed the wrangle between local citizens over football in a front page story by Jeffrey Tannenbaum.

Yellow Springs is the home of Antioch College and sports a huge intellectual community . . . an intellectual group that doesn't want football in its high school.

Glen Owen, high school art teacher, is an example of one side of the football issue: "Why bring in a Frankenstein?" he asks. "You inject middle class values into a school system and eventually something else has to go."

On the other side of the football fence is a group of men who want their boys to play football and have organized a private corporation to package a football team and deliver it ready-made — and winning — to the high school.

Spokesman for the latter group is a truck driver named, of all things, Reginald O'Neal Benning who says, "I ain't hung up on Hamlet, baby, and I still think we're going to make it."

Get the picture? Teacher Owen is quoted as denouncing football as "crass" and "common" and fears the next step would be "rah-rah assemblies and the whole thing about school spirit." Football, he adds, is "a threat to the arts."

Owens gets support from Clair Miller, director of the school's or—

7:30 Kickoff Saturday To Open Piper-Tiger Tilt

The Pied Pipers will host one of the top teams in the state here Saturday when they play the Jacksboro Tigers in their annual Homecoming game. Kickoff time for this contest will be 7:30.

The Tigers will be carrying a 3-1 record into the contest while the Pipers will still be looking for their first win of the season. Last Saturday the Tigers defeated the Stamford Bulldogs 41-12 in their Homecoming game. The Pipers lost to Coahoma 45-14.

This is the last week of non-conference action for 7-AA teams as district action will start next week. In other non-conference action this week Haskell will host Olney, Merkel will play at Roscoe, Anson will play at Albany and Rotan will host Wylie, all Friday night games. On Saturday Stamford will travel to Childress to play Dalhart.

Lee Cook, 175-pound senior, will be quarterback for the Tigers. This is his third year to start at this position. He throws well and is a good runner. In the backfield with him will be Monte Garner, a 143-pound senior, at fullback, Roy Leach, a 150-pound junior, at tailback, and Jerry Mower, a 147-pound senior, at wingback.

In the line the Tigers are expected to start Ronnie Colbert, a 190-pound senior, at tight end; Clippy Williams, a 152-pound senior, at split end;

Randy Jackson, a 216-pound senior, at one tackle and Jeverne Lewis, a 200-pound junior, at the other tackle; John Dykes, a 188-pound junior, will be at one guard and Reggie Foster, a 183-pound senior, at the other guard; Rollo Boster, a 155-pound junior, will be at center.

The Hamlin Junior Varsity defeated the Stamford Junior Varsity here last Thursday evening 26-0, to remain undefeated. The game scheduled this week between the Hamlin JV's and the Merkel JV's has been cancelled by Merkel, according to Bobby King, JV coach.

Bill Cork opened the scoring against Stamford with a 25-yard touchdown run. The try for two points failed. L. J. Lee scored the second Hamlin touchdown with Cork adding the two points.

Lee scored again in the second period when he intercepted a Stamford pass and returned it 30 yards for the score. The pass try for two points failed.

The Hamlin defense set Stamford back in their own end zone for a two point safety and then Lee scored the final six points of the evening on a six-yard carry over left guard.

On Cable Here

Hamlin football fans will be able to see the University of Texas and Oklahoma University grid classic on cable TV Saturday at 1:30 according to Robert Hinshaw, general manager of Cable Electronics.

The Texas-OU game will be carried on Channel 13 in Hamlin.

Bond Election Set Here Saturday

Hamlin voters will go to the polls here Saturday to decide the fate of a $150,000 Sewer Bond Election. Voting will be held in the City Hall with all qualified resident voters eligible to vote. The polls will open at 8 a.m. and close at 7 p.m.

In a statement issued last week, Mayor Hollis Madden

said that approval of the bond issue would not require any increase in city taxes. He said that the increased sewer fees that went into effect this summer would retire the bonds.

Mayor Madden also pointed out that the council did not have much choice in the matter of calling the bond election since the state is requiring that the new plant be built. If the voters turn down the bond issue the city will have to seek some other method of financing the project which would be more expensive than bonds.

The bond election has been called to finance a sewage treatment plant to meet the requirements of the Texas Water Quality Control Board, the Texas Department of Health and the Federal Water Pollution Control Administration.

About $100,000 of the $150,000 issue will be used for the city's share of the cost of the new plant and for land purchases for the site. The balance of the issue will be used only if necessary to extend the present sewer system. It is the thought of the engineers for the city that the federal government is likely to require the city to extend its sewer service before approving the project.

If the additional monies are not needed the bonds will not be sold.

Madden said that there would be no need for a tax increase unless the government comes up with more projects that the city must undertake. He pointed out that in the past two years the city has been required to undertake two projects that have cost in the neighborhood of $200,000 because of state and federal requirements. He said the council has no way of predicting what lies ahead in the way of state and federal requirements but at the present time the city can manage without a tax increase.

The treatment plant is expected to cost $145,000 with the federal government furnishing approximately $80,000 of this in the form of a grant.

All registered qualified voters living within the City limits of Hamlin on the day of the election will be eligible to vote in the election. To meet the requirements of a ruling by the Texas Attorney General there will be two boxes, one for property owners and one for non-property owners.

McCauley High School Makes Homecoming Plans

The McCauley High School Homecoming will be held Saturday, Oct. 23, beginning with registration at 4:30 p.m.

A barbecue supper will be served by the juniors and seniors beginning at 5:30 p.m. Tickets are $1 for children and $1.50 for adults.

The McCauley Eagles will play the Fluvanna Buffalos at 7:30 p.m. in a six man football game. The Pep Squad will crown the 1971 Sweetheart and Hero at halftime.

Members of the Future Homemakers of America Chapter are selling mums for the Homecoming event. Anyone who wishes to purchase a mum should contact an FHA girl by Oct. 20.

A gift will be presented to the ex who travels the farthest distance.

All exes, friends and relatives are welcome.

Church of Christ To Open Gospel Meeting Oct. 17

Dates for a Gospel Meeting to be conducted by Preston Cotham of Sweetwater at the Hamlin Church of Christ have been announced by the minister, W. H. (Gene) Johnston.

Services will be held at 7:30 p.m. each day Oct 17-23, except Sunday. Mr. Johnston invites everyone to attend the Olde Tyme Gospel Meeting.

Exes to Bring Pies Friday

All local ex-students are being asked to bring a pie for the Chili Supper Friday evening during the Homecoming event. The pies need to be at the high school cafeteria by 5:30 p.m. Friday.

Those planning to take a pie should call Valeta Hartle at 576-3410 by Thursday.

A large number of pies will be needed and officers of the association are asking the cooperation of all exes in the project. All pies not served will be sold.

The after game coffee will be held Saturday in the high school cafeteria.

First Permanent Voter Registration Now Open

First so-called permanent voter registration period opened throughout Texas with the beginning of October. This will also be the first regular registration period open to pre-21 voters, with the 18, 19 and 20-year old voters to be registered without any voting restrictions for the first time.

Previously, prior to passage of a United States constitutional amendment, Texas pre-21's had been registered for voting in federal elections only.

There will be no termination point to voter registration this year, with potential voters to be registered on any business day throughout the year at the county tax office.

However, there is a time limit as far as voting is concerned, with the voting registration certificate valid for voting after the expiration of 30 days following sign-up.

Thus, a person who wanted to vote in an election would need to register at least 31 days prior to the election.

With the registration, the voter is now legally entitled to vote in any election for the following three-year period, unless the registration is invalidated for one of the reasons stated under the law.

The county tax assessor is directed to remove from the rolls any person who moves out of the county, is convicted of a felony, is declared legally insane or, of course, dies.

Automatic renewal for a three-year period is made by voting in any primary or general election. Renewal is not made through voting in school, city, bond or similar elections.

First list of registered voters will be prepared after Jan. 31, 1972, with supplemental lists then issued prior to each election.

FROM THE FILES . . .

FORTY-FIVE YEARS AGO
(October 5, 1928)

It is a pretty good sign when home people will put their money into home property. That is what Hamlin people think of Hamlin. In fact this week has seen some big deals pulled off in Hamlin.

The Herald is reliably informed that the brick business house occupied by the Lacy Cash Hardware was sold by John C. Turner to J. A. Young for a nice price.

Also the big two-story brick of the Barrow Furniture Co. was turned to John T. Day this week for a handsome price. This will make Day & Son splendid corner with two large houses connected. No, there is no thought of Barrow giving up the building and placing his furniture in some other store.

Rumors are in the air that several big companies are looking toward Hamlin for investment. Why not? Hamlin has a bright future, if nothing happens, and there is no room for "something" to happen. Hamlin is coming into its own very fast, especially since it is "sitting" beside a high grade oil pool.

This week the Herald Reporter locates six nice brick vaneer residences under course of construction in Hamlin.

We have not yet reported the M. Y. Wilson home that is fast going to completion in the corner of Sixty St. and Alamo Avenue. This is to be one of the largest brick vaneers yet constructed. It stands on the grounds formerly occupied by the Wilson Frame residence which has been moved to a position on Hope Avenue. Mr. Wilson will have the same color and class of brick that are being used in the construction of the Baptist Church.

When everything is considered, the brick house is not so much more costly than all the frame structure, however a well built and maintained frame building will last the lifetime of most builders.

TWENTY YEARS AGO
(October 5, 1951)

There is the story of course, of the colored deacon who, expounding upon his faith in the protection of the Lord, held out his hand in front of a coiled rattlesnake and got bitten.

But there was a new wrinkle this week to the theory that there is considerable difference between faith and good judgement.

Rather skeptical of stories he had heard that one or more mountain lions were roaming the Lake Phantom area in Southeast of Jones County, L. C. Smith of Route 2, Hamlin, loaded up his pack of hunting dogs and went to see for himself.

His curiosity cost him two dogs and gave him some moments which, if filmed, would have been somewhat akin to a Frank Buck African thriller.

The dogs treed the lions, Smith cracked loose with a 22 caliber rifle, wounded one of them and enraged and bleeding, the animal leaped upon one of the dogs, killed it instantly, and left a second mortally torn and bleeding.

At that point Smith found himself deserted. The five remaining dogs held a quick and non-controversial huddle and decided it was time to take off.

Not one of them even waited to hear the motion seconded or voted upon.

Hunter Smith didn't exactly take off himself, but he didn't spend too much time contemplating which was the best thing to do. But of one thing he is sure - there are at least two of those mountain lions loose, and both of them, he asserted, are dangerous killers. One he described as a large and heavy animal and the other as somewhat smaller.

TEN YEARS AGO
(October 5, 1961)

Coach D. C. Andrews reports that his charges are working hard this week following their set back last week to Winters in preparation for their homecoming game with highly rated Childress Friday night.

Andrews said this week that although the Pipers were defeated, 8-0, last week he was proud that they did not give up during the game after having so many breaks go against them. He expects all of the boys to be ready for action Friday night.

The Childress Bobcats will be putting an unblimished record on the line as they hold victories over Paducah, Vernon, Seymour and Electra. Scouting reports here indicate that the Bobcats have big, fast and experienced team.

A sellout crowd is expected for the game. Childress is expected to bring as many as 1,200 fans down with them. Local school officials expect to have standing room only left by game time with all of the reserve seat tickets that are available now on sale at the three drug stores.

A pep rally at 3:15 Friday afternoon on the street between Howard City Drug and the F&M National Bank will be the first of the Hamlin Homecoming activities which are scheduled to continue through Saturday evening. The Pied Piper Band will be on hand to furnish music for the occasion.

Coffee and cookies will be served Friday and Saturday by the B&PW Club at the registration headquarters, in the office of James Rodgers on South Central.

chestra and concert band. He contends that where football teams spring up, raucous marching bands usually aren't far behind. So he's talking about founding something called the National Society for the Prevention of Marching Bands.

The school board last May rejected the corporation's offer and refused to consider adding football to the high school program. But 600 signatures on a petition brought about a reversal in June. One of the board members, a Mrs. Esther Battle, declared that "football is anti-intellectual, a subjugation of individual decision making."

How about that?

The whole controversy swirls in such language. Barbara Hardman, anti-football, frets that most football coaches "are very sexually frustrated males, quite frankly, and most men who play football have a hangup about manhood." But a parttime Bulldog coach and urban consultant, counters with: "I think the man ought to wear the pants of the family. This is a cerebral community. I think it has a high percentage of emasculated males. It's an easy town to raise a sissy in."

Linda Greene, who operates an astrology business, doesn't want anything to do with football. "Football would ruin the school and the town as well. The same mentality that approves of football could lead to other things, like having a shopping center," she says.

Clark Turner, father of the Bulldog quarterback, agrees the anti-football people have something to worry about. "We're going to build a big stadium with artificial turf and kick all the academic kids out of town," he confides. "We're a Communist plot."

What do the kids in town think about it. Marcus Johnson, 15 year old fullback, says: "Football is more important to me than girls. I had a girl friend who said, 'Either football goes or I go.' His girl friend went."

Anyhow, Yellow Springs is fielding a football team this year. Now do you wonder why we have a communication gap between the intellectuals of the nation and all of us cornbread 'n taters middle class people.

Come to think of it, maybe what Mrs. Battle said is what happened to us in the Sweetwater game — we forgot to 'subjugate our individual decision making.'

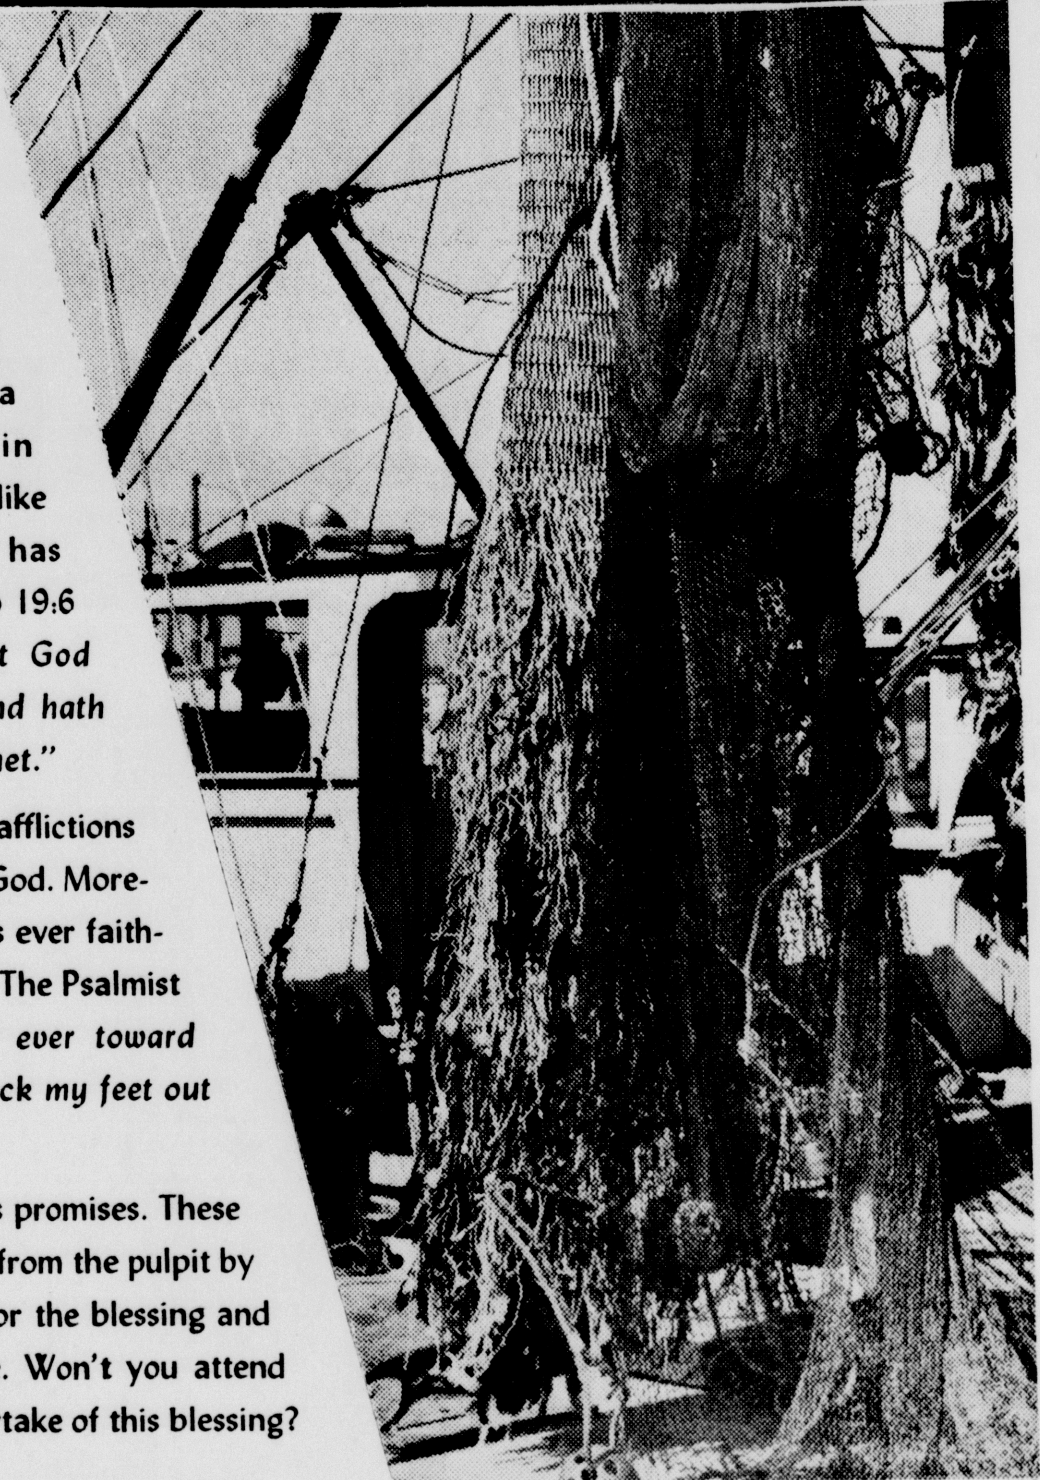

NET

One of the definitions for a net is a trap or a snare.

A net is used to catch a fish. There are times in every man's life when, like Job, he feels that God has trapped him in a net. Job 19:6 reads, "Know now that God hath overthrown me, and hath compassed me with his net."

But our troubles and afflictions are never caused by our God. Moreover, His Word says He is ever faithful to deliver His people. The Psalmist asserts: "Mine eyes are ever toward the Lord; for he shall pluck my feet out of the net."

How wonderful are His promises. These promises are proclaimed from the pulpit by your pastor each week for the blessing and edifying of God's people. Won't you attend church this week and partake of this blessing?

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

Mrs. Johnny Waldrop, second vice president and yearbook chairman, was director. Mrs. Archie Carson gave the invocation. Mrs. Donald Young, president, made announcements.

Mrs. O. H. Weaver Jr. gave the program on the misuse of modern drugs. She pointed out that "drug abuse can be broadly described as an effort by individuals to feel different."

4th, 5th Grade 4-H Club Elects Officers Monday

The Fourth and Fifth Grade 4-H Club was organized here Monday in the elementary building under the direction of Mrs. B. V. Newberry, Jones County home demonstration agent.

The following officers were elected: Kellie Stewart, president; Stacy Bell, vice president; Jamie Jones, secretary; and Jodi Edmiston, reporter. The club will meet the first Monday afternoon of each month.

Temporarily drugs allow their users to evade frustrations, to lessen depression and feelings of alienation and to escape from themselves."

She noted the widespread belief that "medicines" magically solve problems and with the ease with which they are obtained more people are turning to drugs rather than coping with their individual problems.

She listed these points for parents:

(1) Set a good example by not abusing drugs themselves. Since children model their drug taking behavior after parental norms, parents should either refrain from drinking alcohol or drink in moderation.

(2) Parents should learn facts concerning drugs.

(3) Do whatever possible to assist anyone wanting help until professional help is secured. Do not condemn those who need help.

(4) Strive to meet the ideals of parenthood in rearing their children. Society's obligation Mrs. Weaver pointed out in these points:

(1) Society should judge adults who misuse liquor or drugs by the same standards it judges young people. There should not be a double standard.

(2) Society should not be continually impressed with the idea that the stresses of daily life require chemical relief.

(3) Factual information should be stressed rather than that which frightens.

(4) A respect for all chemicals, especially mind-altering ones, should be instilled in persons at an early age.

(5) Efforts to deter traffic in illicit drugs should be increased.

(6) Continuing research in preventative education and treatment techniques with adequate funding.

In conclusion she said "The drug problem is not a new one, nor a unique one. However, for the welfare of society, all must work together to reduce its magnitude now and hopefully to eliminate it completely from society in the future."

Pond Management Tips For Good Fishing Given

Are you taking full advantage of your farm pond? The primary function of a farm pond is livestock water, but all to often the secondary use, fishing, is neglected according to Gary Scheer, Soil Conservationist, at Anson.

All ponds have a great potential for sport and food if just a few management steps are followed. Ponds, like pastures, can be overstocked, and need to be fertilized for maximum production. When fishing is poor in a pond, generally the fish are out of food.

The primary steps to managing your farm pond for good fishing are to clear the pond of all rough fish and waterweeds and muddy appearance. Then order desirable fish from the Bureau of Sport Fisheries and Wildlife or elsewhere and begin a fertilization program in the spring around the last of March. And finally it is important to fish the pond in order to prevent overstocking and stunting of the fish. You should start fishing a pond heavily about one year after stocking.

It's Only Human to Care...

...about the well-being and future of family and friends, community and country.

Cooperatives are human—made up of people who, together, can do what one person cannot do alone.

There are big co-ops and little ones; marketing, purchasing and service co-ops. Co-ops that ship high-quality foodstuffs all over the world, co-ops that provide rural areas with electric power and telephone service, co-ops that furnish health care, credit, insurance, consumer goods and housing. All it takes to get a co-op going is a common need and a strong united determination to meet it.

Cooperatives look outward, too; they're involved in community development, improving the environment, broadening the base of opportunity for young and old...

...because cooperatives are human; they're people—who care.

Conoco Marks Two Years Without Lost Time Accident

HOUSTON — Continental Oil Company's natural gas and oil products department has completed two full years, or 1.6 million man-hours, without a single lost time accident in any of their plant or field operations. The perfect record began on October 2, 1969.

The Conoco department operates 15 gas processing plants, two LPG fractionating plants, two LPG underground storage facilities, plus a gathering and distribution system in southwestern Louisiana. The plant locations range from Wyoming to the Gulf Coast. The department processes about 1.5 billion cubic feet of gas per day and has 317 employees.

Three perfect no-accident record awards were won by the department for 1970 from the National Safety Council, The American Petroleum Institute and the Natural Gas Processors Association.

Conoco's Round Top gas processing plant near Hamlin has not had a lost time accident for nine years, according to Roy Lyle, plant superintendent.

Coahoma Too Much for Pipers In Second Half, Win 45-14

A fired-up band of Pipers played area ranked Coahoma on even terms all through the first half Friday evening on the Bulldogs' home field, but two quick second half touchdowns by the Bulldogs put the Pipers out of the contest. The Bulldogs went on to win 45-14.

Coahoma opened up the scoring early as they intercepted a Piper pass on the Hamlin 18 and went into score on the next play. Two series later the Pipers tied up the game with a 50-yard drive with Johnny Jones scoring on a screen pass from seven yards out.

Early in the second quarter Johnny put the Pipers out in front with a 77-yard touchdown run. The point after try failed and the Pipers led 14-8. Near the end of the second period the Bulldogs pulled back out in front as they moved 78 yards in two plays to score. The two point play was good and the Bulldogs were out in front, 16-14. A 35-yard field goal attempt by the Pipers was short and the teams went in at half-time with Coahoma ahead 16-14.

Two quick third quarter touchdowns by Coahoma put the game out of reach for the Pipers and the Bulldogs went on to score two more touchdowns before the game was over.

Johnny was the night's leading ball carrier, edging out Coahoma's Donnie Buchanan with 145 yards in 16 carries. Buchanan had 143 yards in 18 carries.

Joe Mayes returned the opening kickoff back to the Hamlin 19 to get the game underway. After two tries into the line for no gain, Quarterback Steve Mackey took to the air only to have Coahoma's Wendell Walker intercept at the Hamlin 18. Walker went over right tackle on the next play for the touchdown. Quarterback Roland Beal went around right end for the two points.

Following the kickoff, the Pipers failed to make a first down and punted to Coahoma with the Bulldogs taking over on their 44. Coahoma tried to punt on fourth down but had trouble handling the ball and Buchanan tried to run for the first down. He was stopped on the 50.

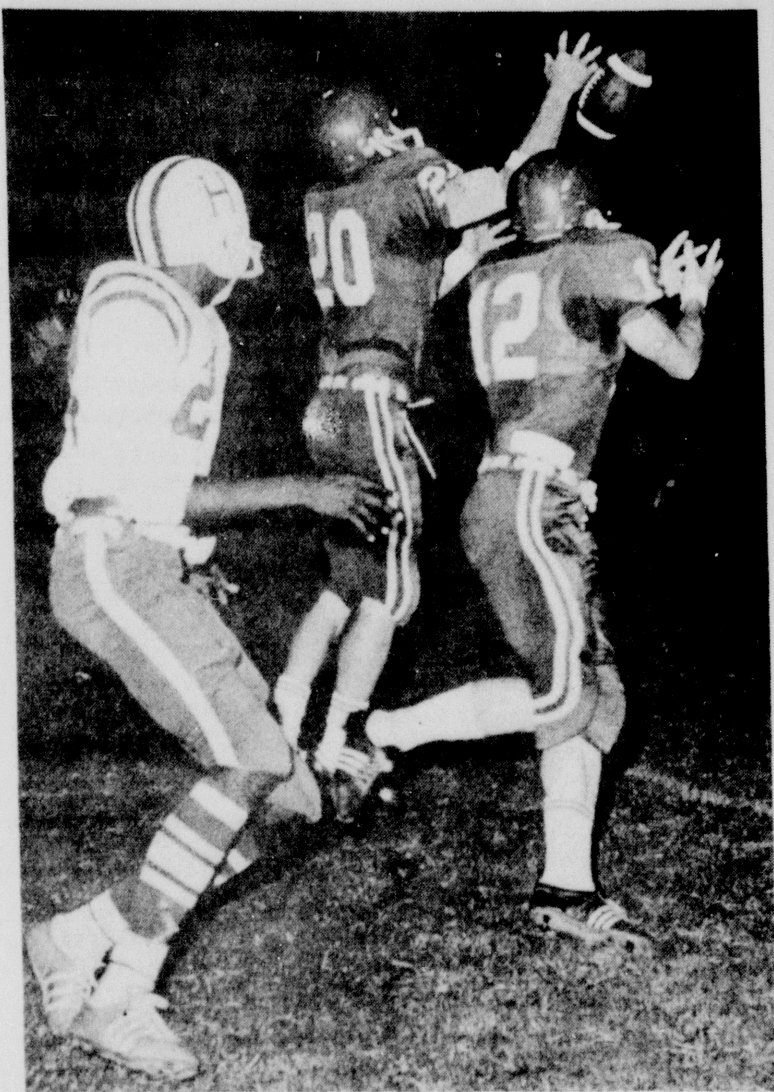

Two tries into the line by Fullback Barry McDonald gained three and a pass interference penalty gave the Pipers a first down on the 42. McDonald carried twice for four yards and Johnny picked up the first down on an eight yard carry to the 30. Johnny broke around left end for 25 yards and a first down at the five. Johnny was dropped for an eight yard loss as he tried around end again, picked up six of these on the next play. Milton Jones had a pass go incomplete and then connected with Johnny on a screen pass with Johnny going in to score. David Willis picked up the two pointer after Coahoma was offsidelines on the first try.

Following the kickoff the two teams punted back and forth with Hamlin taking over on its own 16. Johnny carried for seven yards and then raced around his left end for a 77-yard touchdown run. Mackey's pass for the two points failed and the Pipers led 14-8.

Coahoma moved out to about midfield before punting with Hamlin taking over at the 11. The Pipers moved out to the 39 before having to punt with Rick Rodgers getting off a 49-yarder to the Coahoma 12. But it took Coahoma only two plays to score with Beal keeping for a 59-yard scoring run. Keith Pherigo put Coahoma out in front with a two-point carry.

The Pipers moved down to the Coahoma 29 before losing the ball on an interception with the Bulldogs taking over at their 15. Two plays later Coahoma fumbled with the Pipers' Ray Scifres covering on the 34. With time running out the Pipers moved down to the 15 on a six-yard run by Johnny and a 13-yard screen pass from Milton to Johnny. With only seconds on the clock and no time outs, the Pipers tried a 35 yard field goal with Scifres kicking. The kick was short and Coahoma tried to run it back but was tackled on the five as the half ended.

Coahoma returned the second half kickoff back to their 42 and eight plays later scored with

Buchanan going over right tackle for the final five yards. He went over right guard for the two points.

The Pipers failed to gain a first down following the kickoff and punted out to the Coahoma 44. On the first play Walker went around his right end for 66 yards and the score. The point after was good.

Hamlin punted after failing to make a first down and Coahoma moved from their 23 to the Hamlin 22 before fumbling. The Pipers were forced to punt again and this time a short punt and a face guarding penalty gave the Bulldogs the ball on the Hamlin 31. Three plays later Buchanan scored from 15 yards out. His kick for the point after failed.

The two teams exchanged punts during the first half of the

Piper Patter

BY Terri Casey Shelley Holtz Jimmie Bishop

As Homecoming approaches, the students of HHS are preparing for the exciting and fun-filled weekend. The building of the bonfire was begun Monday, and it continues to take form for the big pep rally Friday evening behind the Piper Stadium. The bonfire is expected to be gigantic this year, and all faithful Piper fans are urged to attend and take part in promoting spirit for the big game Saturday night.

The classes and organizations are busying themselves with the building of the floats for the Homecoming Parade. The competition this year is going to be rough, and all of the work and ideas will be shown Saturday afternoon at the parade.

There will be four especially excited girls this weekend, as they are the Homecoming Queen Nominees. Pam Peace, Becky Wright, Debi Meyner, and Shelley Holtz are the senior girls who will represent the class of 1971-72. The crowning of the queen will take place during half time activities at the game Saturday night.

The Student Council met Monday night, and plans were made to decorate the downtown area for the Homecoming festivities. The council also talked about having regular assemblies at HHS; these assemblies will promote good citizenship and provide entertainment also.

The National Honor Society will host a coffee Saturday morning for all exes who were members of the NHS. This is going to be a great time for the renewal of old friendships and the meeting of new friends.

The students of HHS were really excited about coming to school today (Thursday) as it was Report Card Day. It might be a good thing for some that this weekend has pep rallies, parades, and ballgames in which to attend, or they just might be staying at home.

The 1972 Piper is now on sale. The annual staff members are busy at work on making this the best Piper ever. Anyone interested in purchasing one may contact any annual staff member or come up to the school.

FHA is in charge of making the run-through sign this week. A lot of work is put into the making of the signs, and the FHA members and other faithful Pipers in HHS would really appreciate it if everyone would take part in every phase of this weekend's excitement.

Our team needs our support! So come on Piper Fans, stand up and cheer when the team comes on the field or when the Cheerleaders lead a yell! Let's not only win a football game, but let's also win spirit and pride!

Neinda Philosopher Can't Understand Why Europeans Are Upset Over Dollar

Editor's note: The Neinda Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Route One discusses the monetary system this week, mainly from the theoretical side, of course.

Dear editor:

There's no way around it, the people in Europe are a bunch of sissies.

According to an article I read last night in a newspaper that turned up in my mail box by mistake — the new postal service hasn't, as some feared, abandoned all the fine traditions of the old one — all the countries in Europe are

Cattlemen's Round-up For Crippled Children Sale Nets $50,341

When the final hammer of the auctioneer fell on the 11th Annual Cattlemen's Roundup for Crippled Children Monday at Ranchers and Farmers Livestock Auction in Abilene at a total of $50,341.56 was tallied from the livestock sold.

High selling livestock included two small pigs donated by an FFA boy. After the pigs were sold and resold the receipts added up to $7,500.

The next highest individual item was a small goat which sold for $2,600.

Cash donations brought in $11,500 and the horse sale brought in $3,405 making the total for the roundup to $65,246.

Additional sales of sheep and goats will be held Monday, Oct. 11 and the second horse sale will be Oct. 16 at Abilene Livestock Auction.

Charlie Morris, chairman stated that he was very pleased with the results of the sale and the quality of the livestock donated.

Rolling Plains Economic Program Sets Conference

VERNON (Special) — The annual conference of the Rolling Plains Economic Program (R-PEP) will be Oct. 15 in the high school auditorium at Munday.

A speaker will be Cong. Graham Purcell of Wichita Falls, who will explain current legislation vitally affecting agriculture and rural development.

The fourth conference begins at 1:30 p.m., with Joe Antilley, Abilene rancher and R-PEP chairman, presiding.

Another speaker will be James A. Wilson of Amarillo, supervisor of the Texas Water Quality Board, who will discuss what Rolling Plains farmers and ranchers should know about pollution and pollution regulations.

The group will also elect new R-PEP officers and study the use of task forces for strengthening the production of various R-PEP commodities, such as beef cattle, small grains, forages, wildlife.

BEAT JACKSBORO!! COME TO THE GAME AND BE A PIPER, NOT JUST AN OBSERVER!! THE TEAM NEEDS YOUR SUPPORT!!!

biting their finger nails and losing sleep over the value of the American dollar. It's going down.

As a result, everybody is selling dollars, refusing to take dollars from tourists, and generally demanding that something be done before all Europe panics.

Clearly, they are a bunch of sissies. Why, the value of the dollar has been going down for years in the United States and I haven't found anybody yet who has refused to take one. Everybody I know would like to have a lot more of them.

In fact, it takes a lot more of them to pay two dollars for a dollars worth of groceries.

Of course, the monetary system is one of the things I and possibly some others, say three-fourths of Congress and all economists, have never been able to understand, and it may be that the value of the dollar hasn't gone down, just the price of things has gone up.

Whichever way it is and regardless of whether the dollar is worth 100 cents or 48 cents, I have never been a man yet who, makes no difference what shape his back was in, wouldn't, if he saw one lying on the street, bend over and pick it up. I know a banker who dislocated a hip bending over to pick up a quarter.

Europeans ought to calm down and latch on to all the dollars they can.

As the saying goes, a bird in the hand is worth two in the bush, but you'd better not let the Environmentalists hear you say this.

Personally, I've got confidence in the dollar. It's still worth 100 cents. Unfortunately though a cent is just worth half a penny. That's where the trouble is.

Yours faithfully, J. A.
